My dear Mr. Fleming;
Just a line of deepest sympathy in this your hour of sorrow and grieving - I saw
this morning the notice, by telegraph, of the death of my dear friend, the Gov. for years, we worked together in the dead district.
His was a Chival-rous soul - faithful

in life, he is happy in death. The Christian ideals were his in very real ways - a
woble layman, he now breathes the air of Paradise. Having the Master's sign upon his brow, he now sees the blessed face - May God give you grace to bear this sorrow & may He bless you more and more for the happy meeting beyond with your departed love!

Faithfully,
Percival W. Maury
